Date:- 16th November, 2006

P.C.:

The applicants have moved this Court for withdrawing the amount deposited by the appellant in terms of the Order passed by this Court on 15.12.2005. Pursuant to the Order passed by this Court, the appellant-Insurance Company has deposited a sum of Rs.4,66,525/- in this Court which has been invested in United Bank.

The Registrar is directed to withdraw the said amount from the United Bank along with interest, if any, accrued on the same and out of the said amount, 1/4th amount be paid to respondent No.1 who is the widow of deceased Laxman Patil and the balance amount be deposited in Monthly Income Scheme by the Registrar by opening an account in his name in the main Post Office at Panaji and the monthly interest accrued on the said amount can be paid to the applicants/respondents by crediting it in their bank account, to be opened by the respondents in the same post office. As per the Scheme the minimum time for which the deposit of Monthly Income Scheme is to be made is for six years. The Registrar would continue with the deposit till all the claimants (minors) attain the age of majority and thereafter the amount can be disbursed to the three children in equal shares as the applicant No.1 who is the mother of the minor children is already permitted to withdraw her share of the claim, subject to decision of the Appeal.
